

*Peace has come to me.
The peace within
Has always been here
Waiting to be found.
Thank you all beings
Who have worked
With me.
I have cheated, lied,
And you still have faith
In me.
I have been so unaware
And you have been kind
To me.
I have given up desires
And I find I am still human.
I have forgiven myself
For all the wrongs I have done.
I have learned to love myself,
To accept myself as I am.
I have looked for God
And found God within.
I have looked for love
And found love
Everywhere I look.*
